Kristen (Krissy) Polimeno has announced her candidacy for the Tewksbury School Committee. She and her husband Philip Polimeno, a life long resident of Tewksbury, are the proud parents of three school-age children. Krissy believes that children are the future of our community. She will work diligently to ensure that the Tewksbury School System provides the best possible education to prepare each child for a successful future. She will promote fiscal responsibility with sound decision making in support of high quality, cost-effective educational programs and welcomes the opportunity to serve the children, parents, school staff and Tewksbury community.

Within the Tewksbury Public Schools Krissy has participated in a variety of initiatives, including:

- * Chairperson: Dewing Parent Advisory Council (PAC)
- * Member: Dewing School Council
- * Member: Town-Wide Parent Advisory Council (PAC)
- * Member: Town Pension Committee
- * Member: Reconfiguration Committee
- * Member: Search for the new School Superintendent
- * President: Friends of the New Tewksbury Memorial High School
- * Parent classroom volunteer

Within the community:

- * Coach: Boys Basketball
- * Coach: Girls Softball
- * Teacher: CCD
- * Volunteer: Tewksbury Hospital Equestrian F.A.R.M
- * Former Member: Tewksbury Garden Club

Krissy's School Committee Goals:

- * Advocate for the best possible education that will prepare each child for a successful future
- * Support high quality, cost effective educational programs
- * Foster a shared vision between the school system and the community
- * Determine how to best use available resources and promote fiscal responsibility with sound decision making
- * Provide independent thinking in bringing a positive influence and fresh perspective to the School Committee
